We tossed aside the El Rinconcillo Sevilla menu and took his recommendations for tapas and The Doorway To Tapa, going out of our comfort zone with a cooked spinach dish that was surprisingly delicious. A few people standing outside smoking noticed our interest and invited us inside. It was dark outside when we were on a fairly quiet street trying to find our way back to the city center when we heard Flamenco music coming from a doorway we would have otherwise passed.

Pleasetryagainlater. As we reach the crowded bar my initial reaction is one of sadness, as I look along it at the tapas in front of customers who've been here a while and had a. If you liked this article, you may enjoy these:
