I am curious to see how deep he can drag his characters before we give up on. This is no Robin Cook medical thriller either folks. I barely have enough drugs and money to get me through the day.

The author was himself a medical resident at the University of California, San Francisco. Unless you hate things that are awesome. If you are, you should avoid it like the plague. This is not a book for prudes nor for the squeamish.

He is currently a medical resident at the University of California, San Francisco. His new medical thriller will provide another dangerous arena for the Winter Soldier.
