But Nigel becomes overly curious about one letter in particular, which turns out to be three letters in fact. I was very disappointed as I was hoping for a good contemporary mystery with a tie-in to Sherlock Holmes.

Nigel, somewhat hapless, becomes intrigued by a set of letters, the first story I will buy anything related to Sherlock Holmes. And make sure you bring the only remaining copy of incriminating documents. I am glad I read it as I am planning to read many books inspired by Sherlock Holmes. Baker Street Letters is a fun and light read, nice for cleansing the reading palate after some heavier books of late. So what does brother do?
