Or dare I say, Anti-Black? Fiction Classics Literary Fiction Category:

Ex-librarywiththeusualstamps. Inthisextraordinarynovel, PaulLaurence Dunbar's The Sport of the Gods could easily be a modern novel, for its language use and topicality. That he would be convicted and sentenced was as far from possibility as the skies from the earth.

Kendifeelsthisridiculous. Also by Paul Laurence Dunbar. They wanted to dare say that the South has its faults--no one condones them--and its disadvantages but even what they suffered from these is better than what awaited them in the great alleys of New York. He remains an author worth remembering and reading.
