Well, I think one of the things the study talks about is the economic impact of marriage, and marriage is something - to use the old adage -you know, it's easy to get. But back to your first question, of why I did this...

And then Kylie grew up. Earlier identification of kids whom might have this problem.

So, you know, economic factors factor in greatly. But the healing process is dependent upon knowing who did it, and knowing justice has been served. They will be responsible, with their partners, for teaching their children their history, and what their responsibility to the world is, as both Black people and people of privilege.
