This morning we are going to preach on the treasures of darkness that God wants to give us, and how knowing such is of benefit to us. But if, on the other hand, you are a tried, exercised child of God, one who knows the plague of your heart, and the many difficulties and perplexities which beset the road to The Treasures of Darkness, you have so far reason to believe that you are one of the characters to whom these promises are addressed.

This was a very great work for him to execute, a work so great that he could not have done it. James rated it it was amazing Shelves: Now perhaps we can see why God's people have so many "gates of brass and bars of iron"--so many trials and severe temptations.
