They turned out to be Mouton, Latour, Lafite and Pontet-Canet, and the last-named lost virtually nothing by comparison with its lofty peers. It is not pretentious and you know really, really hope this year that you won't have to sell a vital organ or precious family heirloom to afford a glass of it. I have no doubt that many critics will swallow those P. And of course and are truly mesmerizing vintages. The best red wines combine good colour, lovely fruit and texture, balance, fine acidity and freshness. Hold on just a minute . The Global Fortified Masters Deadline: The timing of the tastings, for once, slightly flattered these wines when compared to the s at the same stage, given the early harvest in and the relatively quick alcoholic and malolactic fermentations.
