Jerry Deloney has been on the Moon since the 50s. The problem is when their house got on fire because Cameron didn't hear his mom telling him to turn off the oven.

Especially Hyde, who is the smartest character on the show, but has no ambitions.

The walks open the city to him and serve as a respite from the stress of his working life. Again you should always obey the laws in your area. Quite possibly the laziest in all of Los Angeles County, which would place him high in the runnin' for laziest worldwide.

I just want things to be a little quieter, so that I can disappear into my book.

since he wasn't paying attention his house almost burned down. I'll do my best with the next one too.
