Folliat's daughter and her marriage was engineered to keep the manor in the family. In Mallowan married his longtime associate, Barbara Parker. One of the best murder mysteries I've read in a long, long time. I enjoyed Dead Man's Folly whilst reading it but felt afterwards that there were too many elements Dame Agatha used better elsewhere, despite it being from arguably the strongest part of her long career. Other books in the series. The Mystery of Three Quarters. The couple had one daughter, Rosalind Hicks. She is an emotional mess and tired.
