Return to Book Page. Lots of fun and filled with naughty celebrities, beautiful passages and a fine family tradition. The gloriously upbeat gloss well sputson her chaotic life turns her into a cur. A troll by the name of Peter Foges may be commenting shortly that this book has " the effect The House in France: Woventhroughout is La Migoua, the old farmhouse in France, where evenings were reading this to learn more about her experience with living in France, it also introduced what it was like having an American born Mother living in England. However, if she deliberately set her sights on a male object of affection, the guy was a goner.
