Burrow rated it did not like it Shelves: John Makes a Dream Journey4.

Bewildered and alone, John sees a path between light and darkness. The characters have flaws that have potential to ruin them emotionally, and the way that they are able to overcome these to become I have read this series many times. While I see how John White wanted to incorporate Biblical principles and stories into his fantasy novels, it is a bit over-done, as is his use of fantasy creatures. I picked up and read "The Iron Scepter" number 4 in this series I think?

The book does not spend long on John before he gets pulled to Anthropos, but it's 12, Nicole rated it really liked it.
