Becoming less Christian does not equate to being less religious, it is merely acknowledging and embracing our increasingly pluralistic society. I see it to be a comforting book to those who feel threatened by the United States progression to a pluralistic, mutli-faith, multi-cultural country.

Yet again Star Parker has created a very literal story about what our countryh She states this is a problem of "transient fathers". But it's a fun ride: For an example Parker has a section about sex being portrayed in the media and on t.

I could not put it down and I did not know what I didn't know. Robert Crane rated it it was amazing Nov 16,
