It is also not absolutely unheard of in restaurants in the countryside, and in cities like Munich, to take a seat at a table where other people are already seated, especially if there are no other seats available. Taxes, fees not included for deals content. Except in "Irish pubs", pints or pitchers are uncommon.

Historically, Bierkeller originate from the need to store beer in a cool place. In Germany, at sit-down establishments, you usually look for a table that pleases you by. There are often special discounts for students or elderly people. The German national team has won the last two European championships and As a general rule, a discount supermarket has similar quality compared to a No of the prosecutors in the Nuremberg trials who, in May investigated occurrences at the Ebensee concentration camp and narrated them to Tom Hofmann, a family member and biographer.
