So many times you read a story and are told our hero is broken and you get bits and pieces and just accept it, but here we get to live it with them and as sad as it was, I feel like it was a necessary evil. This was a hugely enjoyable novel, entertaining and fun. May 23, Michelle rated it really liked it Shelves:

If you're looking for the perfect summer read, pick up The Family Trap. Catch and Release is book 2 in the Catch Series. No really, I'm telling you, it's completely important that you read them. Yet escaping from home, Rabbit is subjected to relatively minimal disapproval for cutting off his bond with his child. Before meeting Darby and her family, the only love he ever knew was that of his mother and Trace's story was a very emotional read for me.
