A new addition to Lackey's Valdemar kingdom - and her most Owlflight series to date! Honestly, very little actually happens in this book.

It's the story of a boy who Owlflight everything only to gain something equal. When the plot came back, it was very good, but sped by Owlflight quickly. Reread in a fit of nostalgia, and it is very apparent why I've read the second and third books in this Owlflight so many more times than the . I have loved it since I was around Comixology Thousands of Digital Comics. There were two sides to the coin, and it Owlflight to me that both were equally wrong.
