Her's is the best! Sweetsop and soursop are popular around Miami, but nearly unheard of in other areas of the South. Typical favorite desserts are quite diverse, and encompass everything from pudding to blizzards. Drive through fast food was invented in this area, but so was the concept of the gourmet burger movement, giving birth to chains like In and Out Burger with many variations of burgers including chili, multiple patties, avocado, special sauces, and angus or wagyu beef; common accompaniments include thick milkshakes in various flavors like mint, chocolate, peanut butter, vanilla, strawberry, and mango. A summertime treat, Italian ice began its life as a lemon flavored penny lick brought to Philadelphia by Italians; its Hispanic counterpart, piraguais a common and evolving shaved ice treat brought to New York City by Puerto Ricans in the s.
