If you are a seller for this product, would you like to suggest updates through seller support? The section on the recent scandals of Mattel products having lead-based paint or ingestible pieces reads more like the daily news, and while it exposes corporate shenanigans, you really can't call anything in this book terribly shocking. Double agent Evil twin. It wasn't bad, even if I were a little more than an intern and I knew there were more. I also realized that if I was to point out all of Oppenheimer's mis-information in detail that my review would be longer than the book. They may include aliens, legendary creatures, extra-dimensional entities or mutated versions of regular animals. The first few chapters were really good, but the rest of this book was so terribly disappointing. Jan08, Ellen added it to shelves: Great read and inside look into the completely effed-up life of Jack Ryan! I learned so much about the makings of Barbie and her creators in the first 20 pages than I ever thought I would ever know.
