And he spends the book trying to get into her pants, while she tries to convince him they could have something. This review has been hidden because it contains spoilers.

Write a customer review. All the more sweet when he finally gives in. I just like one-okay two-of. Jo won't give it up to Rune until he pledges his undying faithfulness to her and no more side nooky.

Especially while she's trying to figure out what else she is now that she realizes she's not the only one. I think that you have the overall plot figured out by now but again she proves you wrong. Josephine is an orphan of unknown decent and powers that she doesn't understand.
