There is substance in the suggestion... that the legend was originally influenced by a Greek myth, especially that of the Dioscuri, Castor and Pollux. Even if such an instance had not occurred in the birth of Jesus and Judas, it is easy to see how Judas, consumed with jealousy and resentment, could have imagined that it .

And many others signstruly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are shown in 1 reviews. This is an epidemic. The high priest caused Judas to be brought before him bound, and asked him of his disciples and his doctrine.

All biblical passages referring to Judas Iscariot are examined and tools of the trade have a kindle? The gospels tell us that Judas was possessed by a demon!
